

CargoWise edi Names Industry Veteran Bill Todd Business Development Manager CHB

Chicago, Illinois, USA, August 27, 2008 — CargoWise® edi, a leading provider of integrated international supply chain logistics management systems, has named highly regarded industry veteran Bill Todd as its new Business Development Manager CHB (Customs House Brokerage). He will be based out of the Chicago office of CargoWise edi.

Prior to joining CargoWise edi, Mr. Todd was vice president of sales for software provider IES, which he joined in 2003. He has an extensive background in the freight forwarding industry, specializing in Customs House Brokerage, having previously worked for air freight forwarder Forwardair, Atlantic Container Line and serving as president of Leschaco, a German-owned freight forwarder, CHB, NVOCC and tank container operator.

"We are delighted to have Bill join the CargoWise edi team," said Gene Gander, Vice President of Sales for CargoWise edi, in making the announcement. "His reputation in the freight forwarding industry precedes him; and his strong 17-year background in sales and management within the industry, including his knowledge of U.S. CHB, makes him a valuable addition to the CargoWise edi sales effort as we continue to expand the market base for our edi*Enterprise* software system."

"I am extremely pleased to be a part of the CargoWise edi team," said Todd. "The Company, with its modular-based enterprise system for freight forwarders, has long been recognized as an industry leader in its field, and I plan to put my experience to work immediately by promoting its service offerings at numerous upcoming events, including WESCCON 2008, to be held in San Diego, October 2-5. This new position is a tremendous opportunity for me."
